

Race Walking: Something for everyone

Midlands RWA's
Coaching and Officiating training day

Sunday 21st October 2012

Alexander Stadium, Perry Barr, Birmingham

This is a free coaching day for race walkers of all levels from novice to would be elite athletes.

We are also offering officials training day to help race goers try officiating to see if they enjoy it.

So if you're an athlete looking for fresh ideas and advice or a race goer looking to start officiating or progress your qualifications you'll be welcome.

To book your place or you have any questions please contact Catharine Telling on 07909 992004

Catharine.telling@sky.com

Pre-booking is essential to ensure that adequate resources can be made available.